

LÆRA
INSTITUTE

A LÆRA INSTITUTE STUDENT SYMPOSIUM

Join us online for

BEING CIRCUMPOLAR

A Student Symposium in Three Parts

20–24 November 2023

Three speakers, three days, three topics, three conversations

Monday

20th

0500 PST

0600 YST

0800 EST

1500 EET

2200 JST

Peoples and Cultures

Film, Culture and Language

Discuss the landscape of film, culture and language for circumpolar peoples from her perspective as a Sami filmmaker with Liisa Holmberg.

Liisa Holmberg, Sami Film Institute

Register for this session at <https://is.gd/1People>

Lands and Environments

Polar Bear and the Politics of Climate Change in the Canadian Arctic

Discuss consequences to Inuvialuit of the western Canadian Arctic of the 2008 US listing of the polar bear as threatened with Dr. Pearce.

Tristan Pearce, Associate Professor, Research Chair in Cumulative Impacts of Environmental Change, UNBC

Wednesday

22nd

0830 PST

0930 YST

1130 EST

1830 EET

0130 JST+1

Register for this session at <https://is.gd/2Lands>

Friday

24th

1100 PST

1200 YST

1400 EST

2100 EET

0400 JST+1

Contemporary Issues

The End of “Arctic Exceptionalism”? Geopolitical Competition and the Contemporary Circumpolar Arctic

Discuss the implications of resurgent strategic competition on the Arctic states, Indigenous peoples, and regional governance in the Circumpolar North with Dr. Lackenbauer.

P. Whitney Lackenbauer, Research Chair in the Study of Northern Canada, Trent University

Register for this session at <https://is.gd/3Issues>

Yukon
University

Lakehead
UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY of ALASKA ANCHORAGE.

